

When Spring Comes In

trad. arr. R. Jeffrey

♩. = 82

A.

When Spring comes in the birds do sing, The lambs do skip and the bells do ring,

5 B.

While we enjoy their glorious charm, So noble and so gay. The 12 C.

prim-rose blooms. and the cow-slip too, The vio-lets in their sweet re-tire, the 18

ro-ses shi-ning through the briar, And the daff-a-down-dill-ies which we admire,

23

Will die and fade a-way.